FRANK R. ADDISON, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Storm:

Q How old are you, Mr. Addison?

A I am 86 years old, the 25th of January.

Q You are trustee of your sister Maggie, are you not?

A Yes.

Q How old is Miss Maggie?

A She is about 88 - 15 months older than I am.

Q And she is down at Sykesville, is she not?

A Yes.

Q Mr. Addison, you and your sister own these two farms - the home farm and the 154-acre farm, is that right?

A Yes, sir.

Q You own a one-fourth interest in the 181-acre farm?

A Yes.

Q By virtue of a deed from your sister?

A Sister Martha.

Q And you also own one-half of the 154-acre farm, is that right? A. Yes.

Q You inherited one-third of that from your mother, didn't you? A. Yes.

Q You got one-half of your sister's third, did you not, by deed from your sister?

A Yes, sir.

Q Mr. Addison, do you or your sister have sufficient money to improve these buildings and fences?

A Mr. Storm, I couldn't answer that question for this rea-
